

Mother of God
Monastery

watertownbenedictines.org
sisteremily@hotmail.com
605.886.4181 ext.1

Spirituality Offerings

March 2018

TRAVELING WITH ST. PAUL

St. Paul was significant for the early Church since his experience of the Risen Lord was central in shaping the faith of the first followers of Jesus. The series starts with a look at small church groups and the people who were the first believers. Each class will invite discussion as well reflecting and praying with sections of the letters.

Dates: Mar. 1 & 15 1:30-3:00 pm Facilitator: S. Emily Meisel, OSB Cost: Free will offering

Images of Jesus in Scripture

There are many Biblical images of Jesus, such as: The Good Shepherd, True Vine, True King, Bread of Life, etc. During this presentation we will explore the Biblical background to find a richer meaning and understanding of what Jesus was really saying about Himself. We will spend time praying with the Scriptures and sharing our insights.

Date: March 10, 9:30AM- 3:30PM
Suggested Donation: $30 (Includes lunch)
Facilitators: S. Emily Meisel, OSB & Ina Wesche, Oblate of SB

Creative Meditation With Clay

Using Scripture and prayer imagery along with molding clay will provide a very creative and insightful day.

No previous work with clay is required. This is a day for prayer and relaxing creativity to come forth. We have a kiln for firing clay, which will enhance your experience. Come with a desire to create and allow yourself to be amazed!

Date: March 24, 9:30AM - 3:30PM
Suggested Donation: $30 (Includes lunch)
Facilitator: S. Emily Meisel, OSB

Conversation & Coffee
9:15am -10:15am

-March 7th
-March 14th

FIRE - WIND - EARTH

In the Hebrew Scriptures, fire and wind communicate the presence, power, and the passion of God. The earth and all creation is the primary image of God's presence.